Women in Leadership

Purpose, Power and Presence

An inspiring two day workshop with Hetty Einzig and Liz Rivers

"I highly recommend this course. It gave me time to think about me, my business and my leadership – I left feeling completely inspired, re-invigorated and raring to go."

Rachael Mills, Director, SE2 Ltd

Do you sometimes feel....?

- You know you're a leader, but you don't fit the conventional stereotype.
- You're good at your job, but you don't always feel confident inside.
- You want to make a difference, not just earn a living.
- You're at a crossroads in your career and need time out to find a new direction and get re-energised.
- You're ambitious to do more but you feel you are underselling yourself.
- You get results but it comes at a cost - you want to find a way to work with more ease.
- You love your work - and you want to balance this with other passions.

You're not alone. Join us and you will meet an inspirational group of like-minded women who share these challenges. You will see yourself through their eyes and discover what an amazing woman you truly are, leaving with new skills, insights and a fabulous network.

This course is for you if...

You are heading up a team, a department or an organisation or you are an entrepreneur, running your own venture or practice.

You will learn how to:

- Make the most of your unique skills, talents and strengths.
- Identify your purpose.
- Deal with negative people and situations.
- Develop and protect your own energy sources.
- Understand the difference between leading and managing.
- Overcome your fears of being visible.
- Get more done with greater ease and less effort.
- Cultivate a solid core of self belief so you are less dependent on the opinions of others.
- Speak powerfully - be persuasive and compelling.

How we work:

Our courses are highly practical, combining precious space for reflection with tangible tools to put into practice. We are known for the high degree of trust we create, allowing you to "drop the mask" and be seen for who you really are, giving you the courage to show more of this out in the world. We then show you how to embody this change so that it is lasting.

What previous participants say:

"This programme is a game-changer. The learning is exceptional – from Liz, Hetty and everyone in the room – and it sticks. At the end of just two intense days you leave in a much stronger position than you thought was possible when you started."

Liz Whitaker, Director, Condor Communications Ltd

"I came away with greater confidence, more clarity and the courage of my convictions."

Deborah David, Commercial Mediator, CEDR Solve

"To be surrounded by a group of fellow women leaders to nurture ideas, support each other in thinking through our challenges, and to take the time and space away from our busy working lives was a real privilege for me. I am so pleased I decided to do it."

Hannah Weisfeld, Charity CEO

"Thank you for such a well constructed, well-managed and well delivered programme."

Toni Pincott, Vice President of Arbitration, NERA Economic consultants
